UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
Norfolk Division

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent,

v.

Case No. 2:23CR00076-001

ALI SCOTT

Movant.

MOTION FOR REDUCTION IN SENTENCE
PURSUANT TO AMENDMENT 821, PART A

Comes now Ali Scott ("Mr. Scott"), acting in a pro se capacity, and respectfully moves the Court for reduction in his sentence pursuant to Amendment 821, Part, and in support states as follows:

1. Effective November 1, 2023, United States Sentencing Guidelines Amendment 821, Part A changed the assignment of "status points" for criminal history calculations. For defendants with seven or more criminal history points, Amendment 821 reduces those defendants' status points to one point. For defendants with six or fewer criminal history points, Amendment 821 reduces those defendants' status points to zero.

2. Amendment 821, Part A removes two status points from Mr. Scott because Mr. Scott had three only criminal history points. Therefore, Mr. Scott being seeks to have his sentence reduced to a term of imprisonment based on the current sentence range which has been lowered by the Sentencing Commission.

3. Mr. Scott's history and characteristics have not changed significantly since his incarceration. Therefore, no reasonable argument can be made by the government for a rebalancing of the Section 3553(a) factors.

Wherefore, Mr. Scott asks this Court to reduce his sentence appropriately.

This the 21 day of May, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Ali Scott
